Rules for Photography and Filming at the Cannstatter Volksfest

Welcome to the Cannstatter Wasen!

We are delighted that you would like to capture our beautiful festival with your camera.

To ensure that all visitors can enjoy the festival equally, we ask that you observe a few rules:

- When taking photos or filming, you must strictly respect the personal rights of visitors.
- For photography or filming in the beer tents and in the Alldorf, please contact the respective operators directly.
- If you wish to take photos or film at a specific ride or booth, you must obtain the operator's consent in advance.
- You may only move about on the designated paths within the fairgrounds. It is not permitted to stand behind barriers or between the vendors' trailers.
- When taking photos or filming, please ensure that your equipment does not obstruct anyone on the fairgrounds or cause injury to anyone.
- It is expressly prohibited to disrupt or hinder the work of the police, security personnel, paramedics, or other safety officers.
- Live streams (e.g., YouTube, Twitch): Before going live, thoroughly familiarize yourself with privacy rights and legal regulations.

in.Stuttgart Veranstaltungsgesellschaft assumes no responsibility for any violations committed by individuals taking photographs or filming.
